

Julian Maxwell Hayter, Ph.D.

221 Richmond Way, Jepson Hall 237 • University of Richmond, VA 23173

Current & Previous Positions

Associate Professor of Leadership Studies (History), University of Richmond's Jepson School of Leadership Studies, 2012 to present

Assistant Professor of History and Coordinator of Africana Studies Minor, Niagara University, Department of History, 2011 to 2012

Education

- Ph.D., University of Virginia (2010) —Modern United States History/African American History/African History, 1500-1800 (minor)
 - Dissertation: We've Been Overcome: Black Voter Mobilization and White Resistance in Richmond, VA, 1954-1985
 - Advisor: Brian Balogh, Ph.D
 - Minor Field Advisor: Joseph C. Miller, Ph.D.
- M.A., University of Virginia (2005)—U.S. History
 - Thesis: Strictly Political: The Rise of Black Political Participation in Richmond, Virginia, 1960-1970
 - Advisor: Brian Balogh, Ph.D.
- B.A., University of Washington (2003)—History

Publications

Julian Maxwell Hayter, "From Intent to Effect: Richmond, Virginia and the Protracted Struggle for Voting Rights, 1965-1977," Journal of Policy History, Vol. 26, No. 4

Julian Maxwell Hayter, "To End Divisions: Reflections on the Civil Rights Act of 1964", Richmond Journal of Law and the Public Interest, 2015

Julian Maxwell Hayter, "City Profile of Richmond," Thriving Cities, Institute for the Advanced Studies in Culture (2015)

Julian Maxwell Hayter, "Racial Politics", The Blackwell Encyclopedia of Race, Ethnicity, and Nationalism (forthcoming—Fall of 2015)

Julian Maxwell Hayter, The Dream is Lost: Voting Rights and the Politics of Race in Richmond, Virginia (Lexington: University Press of Kentucky, 2017)

Julian Maxwell Hayter & George R. Goethals (ed.), Reconstruction and the Arc of Racial (in)Justice (Cheltenham: Edward Elgar Publishing, 2018)

Reviews

Julian Maxwell Hayter, Review of The Rise and Fall of the Voting Rights Act by Charles S. Bullock, Ronald Keith Gaddy, and Justin J. Wert (Norman: University of Oklahoma Press, 2016), Journal of Southern History, Volume LXXXIII, No. 3, August 2017, 750-51

Julian Maxwell Hayter, Review of The Political Erosion of the Voting Rights Act by Jesse H. Rhodes (Stanford: Stanford University Press, 2017—forthcoming for American Historical Review

Publications: Non-Academic

Julian Maxwell Hayter, “Charlottesville Was About Memory, Not Monuments,” Washington Post, 10 August, 2018

Julian Maxwell Hayter, “Confederate Monuments Are About Maintaining White Supremacy,” Washington Post, 3 August 2017

Julian Hayter, “The Rest of the Dream,” Style Weekly, 28 August 2013

Julian Hayter, “Voting Blocks,” Style Weekly, 30 July 2013

Julian Hayter, “Double Segregation,” Style Weekly, 12 August 2014

In the News

“5 Things We Learned About Confederate Monuments from 60 Minutes,” The Times-Picayune, March 12, 2018

“The History of Confederate Monuments,” 60 Minutes, March 11, 2016

“University of Richmond Professor to Discuss Confederate Monuments on 60 Minutes,” Style Weekly, March 11, 2018

Michael Paul Williams, “Will Virginia’s Election Results Affect Debate on Confederate Monuments,” Richmond Times-Dispatch, November 16, 2017

Susan J. Winiecki, “Essential Reading: The Dream is Lost,” Richmond Magazine, November 5, 2017

David Horsey, “Confederate Monuments are Tributes to a Whitewashed History,” Los Angeles Times, October 3, 2017

Michael Paul Williams, “As Relations Between Police and Community Fray, Mayor Stoney Must Step Up,” Richmond Times-Dispatch, September 11, 2017

Weekend Edition Sunday, “Richmond, Va., Grapples With the Fate of Confederate Monuments,” National Public Radio, August 12, 2017

Harry Kollatz, Jr. “The Real Story of Our Monuments,” Richmond Magazine, June 22, 2017

Ned Oliver, “Mayor Stoney: Richmond’s Confederate Monuments Can Stay, but Whole Story Must be Told,” Richmond Times-Dispatch, June 22, 2017

Mary Ann Akers, “How a Goofy Southern Sitcom Became the Vanguard of the Neo-Confederacy,” Politico, 02 August 2017

Michael Paul Williams, “For Better or Worse, Richmond School Board and Bedden Get Divorce,” Richmond Times-Dispatch, 24 April 2017

Michael Paul Williams, “Richmond’s Mayor Stoney Must Weather Outside Forces,” Richmond Times-Dispatch, 16 February 2017

Dean Seal, “Expert Panel Picks Apart Democracy Doubters Through History,” The Daily Progress, September 14, 2016

Michael Paul Williams, “Vilification of Black Lives Matter is Nothing New,” Richmond Times-Dispatch, 14 July 2016

Michael Paul Williams, "Richmond Needs Strong City Council Too," Richmond Times-Dispatch, 20 June 2016

Michael Paul Williams, "Will Mayor's Race Be One for the Ages?," Richmond Times-Dispatch, 21 April 2016

Michael Paul Williams, "Mayor Blends Church and State," Richmond Times-Dispatch, 11 January, 2016

Michael Paul Williams, "A Positive Among Attack Ads in the Gecker-Sturtevant Race," Richmond Times-Dispatch, 2 November 2015

Michael Paul Williams, "Voters Can Forgive Without Forgetting," Richmond Times-Dispatch, 26 March 2015

Karin Kapsidelis, "What is Black History Month," Richmond Times-Dispatch, 19 April 2014

Conferences & Presentations

2018 Southern Collegiate Leadership Conference

Southern Collegiate Leadership Annual Conference, October 20

Keynote Speaker: "Leading Through Controversy"

2018 Virginia Festival of the Book

Presented by the Virginia Foundation for the Humanities, March 21-25

Panel: Loving, Learning, Voting: Virginia Civil Rights

Panelists: Sheryll Cashin and Margaret Edds

2017 International Studying of Leadership Conference (ISLC)

Presented by the Jepson School of Leadership Studies, December 10-12

Panel: Democracy in the Trump Era

Panelists: Paul Achter, Jennifer Erkulwater, Julian Maxwell Hayter, and Thad Williamson

Panel: Lessons from History: Placing Populism in Historical Context

Panelists: Kristen Bezio, Julian Maxwell Hayter, and Ernesto Seman

2017 Organization of American Historians, Annual Meeting

Presented by the Organization of American Historians, April 9

Panel: Disenfranchisement, Past and Present (Chair: James Beeby)

Panelists, Pippa Holloway, Rabia Belt, Liette Gidlow, Julian Hayter, and Brendan Shanahan

2016 Policy History Conference

Presented by the Journal of Policy History, June 1

Panel: Voting Rights in Historical Perspective: Complicating the Narratives (Chair: Pippa Holloway)

Panelists: R. Volney Riser, Liette Gidlow, Julian Hayter

2015 17th Annual ILA Global Conference

Presented by the International Conference Association, October 16

Panel: Teaching Leadership in the Humanities Through Community-Based Learning (Chair: Craig Domeck)

Panelists: Julian Hayter, Jessica Flanigan, Kristin Bezio

2015 American Historical Association, 129th Annual Meeting

Presented by the American Historical Association, January 3

Panel: The Past, Present, and Future of the Voting Rights Act (Chair: Thomas C. Holt)

Panelists: Julian Hayter, J. Morgan Kousser, Nina Perales, Abigail Thernstrom, and Janelle Wong

2014 16th Annual ILA Global Conference

Presented by the International Leadership Association, October 2

Panel: Leadership In and Through the Humanities: Interdisciplinary Approaches to Leadership Scholarship and the Field of Leadership Studies

Panelists: Kristin Bezio, Jessica Flanigan, Julian Hayter, and Javier Hidalgo

2014 Celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Civil Rights Act: Richmond Journal of Law and Public Interest

Presented by the Richmond Journal of Law and Public Interest, September 18

Panel: Modern Implications of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Chair: Corrina Lain)
Panel: Claire Guthrie Castanaga, Julian Hayter, Andrea Simpson, and Thad Williamson

2014 Thriving Cities Project Conference

Presented by the University of Virginia's Institute for Advanced Studies in Culture, June 25 & 26

Panel: Portland and Richmond

Paper Presented: City of Richmond Profile

2012 Policy History Conference

Presented by the Journal of Policy History, the Miller Center of Public Affairs and the Institute for Political History, Richmond, Virginia, June 2012

Panel: Urban Policy in Virginia: A Discussion and Walking Tour

Paper Presented: From Intent to Effect: Black Voter Mobilization and White Resistance in Richmond, VA—1954-1985

2012 Niagara University Presentations

January 19, 2012:

Lecture presented by Multicultural and International Student Affairs

Presentation: Martin Luther King, Jr., and the Legacy of Civil Rights and Non-Violence

February 10, 2012:

Lecture presented by Multicultural and International Student Affairs

Presentation: History of the Tuskegee Airmen and the Legitimacy of "Red Tails"

February 17, 2012:

Lecture presented by Multicultural and International Student Affairs

Presentation Commemorating Black History Month: Civil Rights and the Legacy of the American Civil Rights Movement

2011 HOTCUS (Historians of 20th Century United States) Conference:

Presented by St. Anne's College and the Rothermore American Institution, University of Oxford

Panel: Big Government, Local People: The Strengths and Strains of Postwar Federal Policymaking and Community Building

Paper Presented: From Intent to Effect: The Voting Rights Act in Richmond, VA—1969-1977

Presentation at the University of Richmond, presented by the Center for Civic Engagement and Thad Williamson

Lecture and Talk on We've Been Overcome, September 26, 2011

2006 Policy History Conference:

Presented by Saint Louis University and co-sponsored by Journal of Policy History, the Institute for Political History and the Miller Center for Public Affairs-- Charlottesville, Va, July 2006

Panel: Race and Suffrage Policy in the United States (Chair—Richard Valelly)

Paper Presented: Strictly Political: The Rise of Black Political Participation in Richmond, VA—1960 to 1970

Panel: What Difference Do the Rules Make? The Relationship Between Electoral Rules and Policy Outcomes (Chair: Amy Bridges)

Paper Presented: Strictly Political: The Rise of Black Political Participation in Richmond, VA—1960 to 1970

Discussions, Panels, & Talks

Books for a Better World

August 14, 2018

Discussion of book, The Dream is Lost: Voting Rights and the Politics of Race in Richmond, Virginia

Bioethics, Race, and Healthcare

September 14, 2017

Dr. Joan Harrell & Dr. Wylin Wilson from Tuskegee University, along with leadership studies professor Julian Hayter, lead a conversation on bioethics, health policy and race. Forum provided a venue for the examination and discussion of some of the leading causes and consequences of the significant racial health disparities in the U.S. It also addressed the bioethical argument posed by various scholars that “we should work to eliminate these health disparities because their existence is a moral wrong that needs to be addressed.”

The UnMasking: Race and Reality in Richmond

January 12, 2017

Joined panel discussion led by Richmond Magazine that examined the historical and contemporary perspectives on race in Richmond and why it is still a divisive issue.

The War on the Vote

June 19, 2017

Indivisible Virginia and Charlottesville organized a panel of elected officials and experts to address disenfranchisement in the 21st century South

The Jepson Leadership Forum, 2016-2017

Organizer w/George Goethals

The 2016–17 Jepson Leadership Forum, Reconstruction and the Arc of Racial [In]Justice traces America’s long struggle for racial justice through slavery and civil war, Reconstruction and Jim Crow, the Civil Rights Movement and present day. Journey with us as we return to the setbacks and advances, successes and failures that shaped modern America.

Speakers:

Annette Gordon-Reed, September 15

Ira Berlin, October 19

Eric Foner, November 15

Isabelle Wilkerson, January 24

Jamelle Bouie, February 15

Thomas Jackson, March 21

Higher Education in the Disinformation Age

April 20, 2017

Panel Discussion on whether “Can America’s Public Liberal Arts Universities Restore Critical Thinking and Civility in Public Discourse”

Richmond Politics

October 30, 2016

Keynote lecture and Discussion on mid-twentieth century politics in Richmond, Virginia at Virginia Commonwealth University’s Living Learning Program

Take 30: Historical Context, Future Possibilities: The 2016 Richmond Mayoral Election

October 27, 2016

Led talk and discussion on Richmond politics with Dr. Thad Williamson at University of Richmond, Downtown on the 2016 mayoral race

Richmond Justice: “The Mayoral Debate”

October 13, 2016

Moderated a mayoral debate between candidates for the Richmond mayoralty, 2016

Respectful Discourse: Political and Social Conversations in the School Environment

September 30, 2016

Led and facilitated discussion at Richmond's Collegiate School on teaching race, politics, and urban history in secondary classrooms

"Doubting Democracy?" featuring BackStory with the American History Guys

September 14, 2016

Panelists on Virginia Foundation for the Humanities' (and National Public Radio) BackStory Live with the American History Guys (Edward Ayers, Brian Balogh, and Peter Onuf) and Dahlia Lithwick

Race, History, and the University: A Town Hall Discussion

March 31, 2016

Moderator for discussion on race and college campuses with Dr. Craig Steven Wilder, MIT historian and author of Ebony and Ivy: Race, Slavery, and the Troubled History of America's Universities

The Half Has Never Been Told

January 15, 2015

Speaker and Q&A Facilitator on Panel with Edward Ayers and Edward Baptist at the Richmond-Times Dispatch

Last Lecture Series

November 13, 2014

Speaker—Obligations of Solidarity: UofR, the City of Richmond, and the Richmond Promise

Virginia Historical Society—Created Equal Film Series

November 6, 2014: The Abolitionists

Consultation, Speaker, and Q&A Facilitator

September 8, 2014: Freedom Riders

Consultation

June 19, 2014: The Loving Story

Consultation and Panel Facilitator

March 20, 2014: Slavery By Another Name

Consultation and Commentary for Slavery by Another Name

Honoring the Legacy, Engaging the Dream

January 21, 2014

Keynote speaker for the University of Richmond's MLK Commemoration Ceremony

Lincoln in Richmond—1865 and 2011

October 25, 2013

Panel discussion presented by the Jepson School of Leadership Studies with George R. Goethals, Mike Gorman, Rita D. McClenny

1963: The March on Washington

October 25, 2013

Panel discussion with Laurant Lee presented by the Teacher Workshop Presented by the Virginia Historical Society's E. Claiborne Robins, Jr. Teacher's Institute

Redistricting, Disenfranchisement, and Voting Rights

Foundation for Regional Knowledge: A Political History of the Richmond Region

September 7, 2013 & 2014

Lecture presented for Leadership Metro Richmond's Annual Retreat Agenda

October 26, 2013

Lecture presented (with Henry L. Chambers) by Terms of Racial Justice and the office of Common Ground

Fast Forward 50 Years...MLK's Letter From a Birmingham Jail

April 16, 2013

Lecture Presented to Leadership Metro Richmond commemorating the 50th Anniversary of Martin Luther King Jr.'s Letter From a Birmingham Jail

Awards & Fellowships

Distinguished Educator Award, University of Richmond, 2018

Faculty Member of the Year 2013-2014- University of Richmond: Richmond College Student Government Association

Virginia Historical Society—Guy Kinman Research Fellowship, 2014

Courses Taught

University of Richmond: 2012 to Present

Black Literary Leadership

Leadership and the Humanities

Justice and Civil Society

Richmond, Virginia and the Politics of Leadership

Summons to Conscience: Questioning Civil Rights Leadership and Popular Misconceptions of the Freedom Struggle

Niagara University: 2011-2012

Africa in World History

Contemporary Problems in American History

Introduction to Historical Research

The Rise of Black America

Senior Honors Seminar

The United States in Contemporary World History

University of Virginia: 2008

Black Power and Civil Rights

Organizations

American Historical Association

Organization of American Historians

Urban History Association